What is The Catholic Faith in Action Seminar?

During the Last Supper, Jesus promised his disciples that he would ask His Father to send a helper to be with them forever. (John 14:16) We know that that promise was fulfilled at Pentecost when the Holy Spirit appeared very dramatically . (Acts 2:4) But that was only the beginning. That same Spirit continued to guide the Church, both individually and collectively. In recent years, during a time of urgent need, the Church has been especially blessed with outstanding leadership as a direct expression of that promised help. Our three most recent popes, each in his own way, has provided a piece of that needed guidance.

It has been said that Pope Saint John Paul (the philosopher) told us what we should do; Pope Benedict (the theologian) explained why; and now Pope Francis (the missionary) is telling us to “go do it.”

And what is that “it” we are supposed to do? We are to make disciples of all nations (Mt. 28:19). If we examine the teaching of our popes more closely we will also learn, how are we supposed to do it.

Popes John Paul and Benedict popularized the phrase The New Evangelization. This is essentially the original evangelization (sharing the Gospel) but with recognition that everyone needs to be evangelized—including us. We all need to be converted more deeply, to experience what the first disciples experienced at Pentecost—the fire of the Holy Spirit.

Pope Francis challenges us to be Missionary Disciples. Once we have experienced Christ and the Holy Spirit more personally, we have something to share.

When viewed together we see the wisdom of our popes telling us to put our Catholic Faith into Action. And that is what this six week seminar is designed to accomplish.
